M. VENKATESA IYENGAR,
Secretary to Government, General Department.

REGULATION VIII OF 1936.

(Received the Assent of His Highness the Maharaja on the Fourteenth day of July 1936.)

Regulation for the Suppression of Brothels and Immoral Traffic in the Mysore State.

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for the Suppression of Brothels and Immoral Traffic in the Mysore State; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (a) This Regulation may be called the Suppression of Immoral Traffic Regulation of 1936.

(b) The Government may from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette apply all or any of the provisions of this Regulation to the whole or any portion of Mysore from such date as may be specified in the notification and may cancel or modify any such notification.

Provided that sections 6, 7 and 8 shall not be so applied to any area unless the Government are satisfied that there are sufficient number of rescue homes in that area.

Definitions.

2. In this Regulation, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

‘Brothel’ means any house, room, or place, or any part thereof which the occupier or person in charge thereof habitually allows to be used by any other person for the purposes of prostitution.

‘Prostitution’ means promiscuous sexual intercourse for hire.

‘Magistrate’ means a Stipendiary Magistrate of the First Class.

‘Prescribed’ means prescribed by rules made under this Regulation.

Solicitation.

3. Whoever,

(1) in any street or public place, solicits any person for the purpose of prostitution, in such manner as to cause obstruction, annoyance or danger to the residents or passengers or to offend against public decency, or

(2) frequents such street or public place, for the purpose of prostitution or of solicitation so as to constitute a nuisance, or to offend against public decency shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees or with both.

Procuration.

4. Any person who induces a woman or girl to go from any place with intent that she may, for the purposes of prostitution, become the inmate of or frequent a brothel, shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

Importing woman or girl for Prostitution.

5. Any person who takes or attempts to take or causes to be taken from one place to another any woman or girl with a view to her carrying on or being brought up to carry on the business of prostitution or causes or induces any woman or girl to carry on the business of prostitution, shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

6. Where a Magistrate has reason to believe from a report made to him by a Police Officer, or otherwise, that a girl apparently under the age of 18 years is living, or is carrying on or is being made to carry on the business of prostitution in a brothel, disorderly house or place of assignation, he may issue an order to a Police Officer not below the rank of an Inspector specially authorised in writing in this behalf by the Superintendent of Police, to enter into such brothel, disorderly house or place of assignation, and to remove therefrom such girl; and thereupon such Police Officer shall have the power to enter into such brothel, disorderly house or place of assignation, and shall be entitled to remove such girl forthwith from such brothel, disorderly house or place of assignation.

Removal of minor girl
from brothel

7. A girl who has been removed under section 6 shall be brought before a magistrate having local jurisdiction and such magistrate shall make such inquiry as he thinks fit and if satisfied that the girl is under the age of 18 years, he may make an order that such girl be placed until she attains the age of 21 years or for any shorter period, under such conditions as may be prescribed, in a rescue home provided or aided or recognised by the Government or in such other custody as the Court, for reasons to be stated in writing, shall consider suitable, provided that such custody shall not be that of a person other than a relative of the girl or of a body of a different religious persuasion from that of the girl.

Commitment to suitable custody.

8. When a girl has been removed from a brothel or disorderly house or place of assignation under the provisions of section 6, the Police Officer carrying out the removal shall, until such girl can be brought before a magistrate, cause her to be detained in a rescue home provided, aided or recognised by the Government or in such other suitable custody (other than a police station or jail) as may be prescribed in this behalf by the Government, provided however, that such custody shall not be that of a person or a body of a different religious persuasion from that of the girl.
